

XM radio offers uninterrupted programing for the traveler thus allowing them to enjoy talk, informational, audio books along with music broadcasts not offered in many areas. I can't understand why it should be removed from the consumers ability to choose various programing.